Damian Stayne - Day of Healing and Reconciliation at Corpus Christi High School

All are welcome to this day of Prayer, Praise & Worship, Reconciliation, Holy Mass and Healing at Corpus Christi High School on Saturday, September 2nd from 9am to 5pm. The day will provide an opportunity to experience God working in a visible miracle or in the quietness of our hearts. It is a sign to us of His great love for us and it fills us with wonder. We know that He cares intimately about us; we know that He is our fulfilment and source of joy. These truths heal us and set us free so that the Holy Spirit can bear fruit in us and through us. The day will be led by Damian Stayne, who founded the Vatican-endorsed organisation Cor et Lumen Christi Community twenty years ago. He has an international ministry of preaching, physical healing and ministering to people the love and glory of God.

Belonging and Participation

Young people do not see themselves as a disadvantaged class or a social group to be protected or, consequently, as passive recipients of pastoral programmes or policies. Many wish to play an active part in the process of change taking place at this present time, as confirmed by the experiences of involvement and innovation at the grass-root level, which see young people as major, leading characters together with other people.

Young people, on the one hand, show a willingness and readiness to participate and commit themselves to concrete activities in which the personal contribution of each might be an occasion for recognising one's identity. On the other hand, they show intolerance in places where they feel, rightly or wrongly, that they lack opportunities to participate or receive encouragement. This can lead to resignation or fatigue in their will to desire, to dream and to plan, as seen in the diffusion of the phenomenon of NEET ("not in education, employment or training", namely, young people are not engaged in an activity of study or work or vocational training). The discrepancy between young people who are passive and discouraged and those enterprising and energetic comes from the concrete opportunities offered to each one in society and the family in which one develops, in addition to the experiences of a sense of meaning, relationships and values which are formed even before the onset of youth. Besides passivity, a lack of confidence in themselves and their abilities can manifest itself in an excessive concern for their self-image and in a submissive conformity to passing fads.
